ALLEGED HOLDUP MAN DYING FROM FIGHT WITH CONSTABLE

Elizabeth Negro in Memorial Hospital After Monongahela Gun Duel

TWO OF HIS PARTY ESCAPE

Constable Rue of Forward Township Aims Well and Brings Down Quarry While Bullets Are Flying About His Person

One negro of a trio accused of a holdup on the Monongahela bridge at 12 o'clock Thursday night was shot down by Constable James Rue of Forward township, Allegheny county, early this morning when he met up with the trio and engaged in a pistol duel with them. The man is now dying at the Memorial hospital, Monongahela, where his name has been given as Edward Parker, aged 24 years of Elizabeth. The other two members of the trio escaped in the direction of Elizabeth.

At 12 o'clock a foreigner was crossing the bridge when he was accosted by three negroes. They relieved him of a $1 bill and 50 cents in dimes. He ran to Monongahela and informed the police. Immediately Constable Rue was notified in Axelton. Constable Rue hastily dressed and started down the road leading from the bridge. Shortly he came across three men standing in the road arguing among themselves. Quietly he approached and demanded that they throw up their hands.

Instead of surrendering immediately one of the trio turned a flashlight on Constable Rue and another started firing a revolver at him. He returned the fire heartily with a 32 automatic pistol. One of the men dropped. The other fled

Constable Rue picked up the wounded man and with help which he summoned removed him to the hospital. There it was found a bullet had penetrated his skull and that he was in a dying condition. He was unconscious. In his pocket was found themoney the foreigner claimed to have had stolen. including five dimes

Constable Ruehas not been arrested, though it is presumed that he will be arraigned formally in order that he may make his statement.

ELKS' BANQUET NOTABLE AFFAIR

Spirit of Patriotism, Loyalty and Unity Uppermost at Function

EULOGY PAID AMERICANS

The spirit of patriotism and loyalty was uppermost when Thursday evening the first annual dollar banquet of Charleroi lodge No. 494. B. P. O. Elks was held in the banquet hall of the club house on Third street About 125 members of the lodge attended the banquet and enjoyed the program of speeches and music that was presented by the special committee of exalted rulers and present officers who arranged the affair.

The toastmaster was High E. Fergus, Esq. The chief address of the evening was made by Tom P. Sloan. His theme was patriotism, loyalty and unity, and his preachments were especially timed in view of the critical conditions which now reign in America. Probably never was such a speech heard in the banquet room. Mr. Sloan went far back into history to prove that Americanism stands for patriotism. He argued that the term hyphenated American is a misnomer, and illustrated by a eulogy of such men as Lafayette, who helped America in its great war of the Revolution, and others who fought similarly for America. He said that if the turn of events were such as to plunge America into war, all people would stand behind the country regardless of their birth—that "every American would volunteer."

J. E. Masters, grand trustee of the lodge of B. P. O. Elks, spoke on the theme of principles of the order, and remarked upon the charity efforts of the order. Other speakers of the evening were Roland W. Brown, County Commissioner John O. Watson and J. B Tussing, who gave the 11 o'clock toast Solos were rendered by Albert Boucher, Walter Urben and Frank Miller.

CAPT. GEORGE W. THOMAS DIES AFTER AN EXTENDED ILLNESS

Former Charleroi River and Coal Man Succumbs at Home in Pittsburg

WIDELY KNOWN AS PILOT

Spent Years in Service—Helped Organize Peoples' Coal Company of Which For Many Years he Was The Manager

After an extended illness, Captain George W. Thomas, aged 58 a former widely known river and coal man of the Monongahela valley, died at his home, 307 South Rebecca street, Pittsburg, this morning at 9 o'clock. A complication caused his death. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late home and interment will be in the McKeesport cemetery.

Capt. Thomas began life as a pilot on the Monongahela river at the age of ten years. He spent fourteen years on the river as pilot, in that time piloting over 100,000,000 bushels of coal into the Pittsburg harbor with the "Charles Jutte." His record as a pilot was of the best. He had the honor of towing the first coal out of the Monongahela river after the freeing of navigation by the government, which purchased the locks and dams from the Monongahela Navigation company. Capt. Thomas followed the river until 1890, when he sold his interest in the River Coal company and in 1901, he and W. C. Jutte established the Peoples' Coal company of Pittsburg. He was manager of this concern for a number of years prior to his retirement.

Capt. Thomas was the son of George W. Thomas who was mine superintendent of the Gilmore Coal company at Webster.

Capt. Thomas was united in marriage with Ella Dias, a daughter of Joseph Dias of Webster. They reared a family of five children. They are Charles F. Thomas, cashier of the Bank of Donora, Albert G. Thomas of New Orleans, Mrs. Arthur Moore

NEEDING ATTENTION SOON

There is one place along the Pittsburg-Charleroi lines between bridge No. 3 and the Eldora that is going to need attention very soon. It is a place where the tracks threaten to be undermined by successive slides of earth.

When the Pittsburg-Charleroi line was built around the curve at that point the ground was sound. Since there have been numerous slides and the coming spring may see other ground falling away from the tracks. As each clod moves the danger point is neared.

What can be done is a problem for the engineers to face. The Railways company is not asleep and it can be depended upon to protect its right of way. The time is soon coming when it must do it.

STAY OFF THE RIVER

Three near tragedies have been reported on the river as a result of ice skating within the last few days. There may be more if the hard weather continues and the ice which covers the river is not broken up. Air holes were the cause, skaters plunging into them before they knew of their existence. Such usually is the case.

The Monongahela river at one time before slackwater navigation was started may have made an excellent place to skate when frozen over. Of late years the ice has been too treacherous and it would take still harder weather and a longer period of it to put the stream in trustworthy shape. The easiest way to save your life is to stay off, remembering that danger is lurking there and that you may be the victim.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

GAMBLE ON FAKE ALARMS

Philadelphia has sympathized for a long time with the harassment of her fire department by a long string of fake alarms, extraordinary in number but if Fire Marshal Elliott is not disappointed in some evidence he has secured the end is about at hand. The explanation is one of the strangest that could be imagined—Philadelphians have been gambling in fire alarms. All big city fire departments have their experience with fake alarms and pay no more attention to them than the men's natural irritation supplies when the alarms come in the course of bitterly cold nights, unless the number grows into proportions which nothing can ignore and which demands inquisitonal action by officials. If the annoyance had not become intolerable in Philadelphia, probably the gamblers might still be bothering the firemen to find fires that had no existence.

Fire Marshal Elliott took up the investigation for a finish and was amazed and angered all the more when his testimony began to coverage towards a single point. But he refused to form a judgment until the evidence became overwhelming in dimensions and pointedness. He declares he uncovered the existence in that city of a club corresponding in methods of speculation to the old "pool" and similar devices.

On the payment of a membership fee, a card is issued with numbers corresponding to the numbers of five fire alarms. At the end of each month those members whose cards bear the numbers approaching most closely to the figures in five fire alarms "spht the pool." The temptation to send in fake alarms, according to the fire marshal, is so apparent that it explains itself in the phenomenal number of false alarms which turned Philadelphia firemen out at all hours The man who has the blood of the true gambler in his veins apparently has no boundaries around his speculative horizon

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Mark Twain was first introduced to James McNeill Whistler in the latter's studio in London. He had heard that the artist was a great joker and was prepared for anything in that line. He put on a hopelessly stupid air and drew near the canvas that Whistler was completing.

"That ain't bad," drawled the humorist "It isn't bad. Only here in the corner—extending his hand as if to rub out a cloud effect in the corner—I'd do away with the cloud if I was you."

Whistler cried out seriously: "Gad, sir be careful there! Don't you see the paint is not dry?"

"Oh, that don't matter," said Mark "I've got my gloves on."

The farmer walked into the little grocery with a firm step.

I want a tub of butter,he said, "and a lot of sugar, and all that other stuff."

"Good gracious!" said the widow who kept the shop. "Whatever do you want with all them goods?"

"I dunno," said the farmer, scratching his head, "but you see I'm the executor of your husband's will and the lawyers told me I was to carry out the provisions."

SMITH CREEK, GREENE COUNTY COAL OPTION IS EXTENDED A FEW DAYS

An option on the Smith Creek block of coal which was to expire Thursday, has been extended a few days longer. The exact length of the extension is not made public.

The Smith Creek block contains almost 5,000 acres and lies south of Waynesburg in Franklin and Center townships; Waynesburg and Uniontown parties owning the bulk of the block. During the past three months a number of diamond drill tests have been made in the field, but at the present time one of the tests has not been completed and the analysis of the last two tests has not been finished. Because these tests have not been finished was given as the reason for the extension of the option.

A number of options have also been secured in the same territory from land owners who have never sold their coal. An effort will be made to have these options also extended, especially those that expire at this time. The price for which the block is optioned is about $300 per acre.

NON-INTOXICATING DRINK 30 PER CENT ALCOHOL; DEALER DRAWS FINE

Jim Pett, of Donora, who a few days ago entered a plea of guilty to carrying concealed weapons, entered a plea of guilty Thursday to a violation of the liquor laws. He was sentenced to pay the costs, fine of $500 and to undergo imprisonment in the county jail for three months. The sentence began Thursday, so that it will run concurrent with the 60 days' sentence he got on the gun-carrying charge. Pett was arrested in a raid on a Greek coffee house at Donora. He was selling a drink,popular among the Greeks. It was claimed it was non-intoxicating, but an analysis of the same showed thirty per cent alcohol.

Tolstoy's Intensity.

Everything in Tolstoy's character, says a Russian writer, attains titanic proportions. "As a drinker he absorbed fantastic quantities of liquor. As a gambler he terrified his partners by the boldness of his play. As a soldier he advanced gayly to bastion four, the bastion of death at Sevastopol, and there he made dying men laugh at his witty sayings. He surpassed every one by his prodigious activity in sport as well as in literature."

MURDER CASE FROM HOUSTON SECTION REACHES THE JURY

Dominica Note, of the Houston section, indicted for the murder of Constable James McCarl of Houston was tried before Judge C. A. Baldwin, in court room No. 2 Tuesday and the case is now with the jury. It was given to the jury shortly before 4 o'clock and an agreement was reached at 4:15. However, court had adjourned, and the verdict was sealed.

Note, at the coroner's inquest, was held as being responsible for the death of Constable McCarl. The jury found that McCarl's death was due to paralysis of the solar plexus, caused by a blow in the abdomen.

At the time that McCarl sustained this alleged fatal blow he was attempting to arrest Note, who was in an intoxicated condition and the averment is that Note, in resisting arrest, kicked McCarl in the abdomen. The commonwealth is not asking for a first degree verdict, so the usual form of arraignment and challenging of the jurors individually was not used.

DONORA MAN SENTENCED FOR OPERATING GAMBLING HOUSE

John Pagomis, of Donora, a barber and proprietor of a pool room at that place, entered a plea of guilty Thursday to keeping a gambling house. On one occasion an officer in entering the defendant's place found a crap game in progress on one of the pool tables. The defendant gave the signal to stop the game when the officer came in, but the latter had seen enough. The defendant's counsel said he had told his client he must not permit gambling at his place of business. Pagomis was fined $5 and costs and advised to cut out any gambling at his place of business.

Shrivels, Loosens—and It's Gone!

"Just like taking the lid off—that's how easy you can lift a corn off your toe after it has been treated with the wonderful discovery, 'Gets-It.' Hunt the wide world over and you'll find nothing so magic, simple and easy as "Gets-It." You folks who have wrapped your toes in bandages to look like bundles, who have used salves that turned your toes raw and sore, and used plasters that would shift from their place and never "get" the corn, and who have dug and picked at your corns with knives and scissors and perhaps made them bleed—just quit these old and painful ways and try "Gets-It" just once. You put 2 or 3 drops on, and it dries at once. There's nothing to stick. You can put your shoe and stocking right on again The pain is all gone. Then the corn dies a painless, shriveling death, it loosens from your toe, and off it comes. "Gets-It" is the biggest selling corn remedy in the world today. There's none other as good.

Our Courageous Ambassador Gerard

Who Stood Firmly to His Duty Regardless of Sinister Threats

Ambassador James W. Gerard, whose last hours in Germany were marred by remarkable incidents. He was refused permission to communicate in cipher with Washington, his telephone wires were cut, his mail and telegraph privileges stopped, and he was, in his own words, a prisoner.

When American newspaper correspondents in Berlin told Mr Gerard they had heard they were likely to be held as hostages for the safety of German ships laid up in American ports, he replied

"'I told Montgelas I would sit here in Berlin until Kingdom Come and not leave until all Americans were permitted free exit.'"

Mr. Gerard's farewells were said in a friendly, though formal, manner. Many Germans were in the throng at the station, which consisted partly of Americans who had not received permission to depart.

HIGH SCHOOL TO ENTER GAME WITHOUT CAPTAIN

Fiedler Out on Account of Injury—Parent and Glunt Likely to Start Contest as Forwards—Washington Game Next Week Awaited

It is doubtful if Capt. Fiedler will get into the game tonight at the high school between Charleroi and Donora. Ligaments which were torn several days ago have not healed and he is in a crippled condition. On the forwards it is likely that Parent and Glunt will start. If so a likely pair will be in the contest. Both have proven their mettle in previous big games and both are strong heady players that it is impossible to wear down. Pollock is expected to be the choice for center with Stahlman and Eagye on their regular guards. Charleroi anticipates a victory over Donora and will work hard.

Next week the Washington high school five will appear on the Charleroi floor and it is the intention of Charleroi to give them their first county drubbing this year. Washington has been beaten once by Braddock, but in the county league has gone along without a defeat. Baumberger the Washington star will hardly get into the affair, since age will bar him. Capt. Fiedler will be saved by Charleroi for this big struggle and team work perfected by Coach Wagner.

TO HELP YOUNG GIRLS

A Mother Wants Her Letter Published.

Eaton, Ill.—"I wish you would publish this letter for the benefit of young girls. My daughter suffered greatly from female trouble with cramps, and headache, and backache most of the time. She never felt like working and it seemed as though she was sick all the time. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has helped her in every way, in fact it has really cured her, for she no longer has periodic pains, and no more headac e or backache, and I want all young girls who suffer as she did to know about it." —Mrs. ALMA MILLS, Eaton, Ill.

Another Girl's Experience.

New Castle, Ind.—"From the time I was eleven years old until I was seventeen I suffered each month so I had to be in bed. I had headache, backache and such pains I would cramp double every month. I did not know what it was to be easy a minute. My health was all run down and the doctors did not do me any good. A neighbor told my mother about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it, and now I feel like a new person. I don't suffer any more and I am regular every month."—Mrs. HAZEL HAMILTON, 822 South 15th St., Newcastle, Ind

MOSCOW CATHEDRAL.

Ivan the Terrible Lived Up to His Name In Building It.

One of the most extraordinary and fantastic Christian places of worship in the world is the Cathedral of Moscow, known as Vasili Blajenni, strange not only in outline and conception, but even stranger in its history.

No one knows the architect's name, but the story goes that the czar ordered his eyes to be put out directly the church was completed, so that he should never be able to surpass his work.

The idea of the building was inspired by the wickedest and maddest monarch who ever sat on a throne—Ivan the Terrible, czar of Muscovy.

The architecture is in every respect extravagant and barbaric, and the coloring is garish in the extreme. It has nine chapels, roofed by nine cupolas, each different and each stranger than the other. One resembles a pineapple, another a melon, a third is said to look a hedgehog in its appearance, and the rest are more or less grotesque. Some are gilt; others are painted in brilliant hues.

Indeed, the only description is that it is a nightmare of a church, the fitting legacy of a ruler who grilled his counselors in frying pans and clothed his subjects in bearskins in order that trained dogs might worry and tear them to pieces.—Strand Magazine.

FARMER 74 YEARS OLD

Tells How Vinol Made Him Strong

The following letter from farmer Lester adds another link to the great chain of evidence which proves that there is nothing equal to Vinol to create strength for feeble, weak, run-down conditions and after sickness.

Vestal Centre, N. Y.—"I am a farmer 74 years of age and got into a weak, run-down condition as a result of the grip. Our druggist suggested Vinol to build me up and I noticed an improvement soon after taking it, and it has restored my strength so I can now do a good day'swork. My wife has also taken Vinol for a run-down condition with splendid results." H. W. Lester.

The reason Vinol is so efficient in building up strength for weakened, feeble, old people is because it contains beef and cod liver peptones,iron and manganese peptonates and glycerophosphates, the most successful tonics known.

We wish every person in Charleroi who is suffering from a weakened, run-down, devitalized condition would try Vinol on our guarantee to return their money if it fails to benefit.

AMONG THE THEATRES

MAJESTIC—CHARLEROI

One of the best programs in months was offered by Manager Sweeney of the Majestic theatre to his patrons this week, with standing room only being the report at many of the shows. On Monday Benjamin Christy appeared in "Blind Justice," a feature billing that was a hit. Douglas Fairbanks was featured on Tuesday in a great play "Americano," when standing room was at a premium and when the famous actor appeared at his best. E. K. Lincoln and June Elvidge in "The World Against Him." Wednesday were especially strong. The Thursday attraction was E. H. Sothern and Peggy Highland in "The Chattle." On Friday "Chicken Casey," with Dorothy Dalton, is billed and the Saturday film attraction is to be Barney Barnard in "A Prince in a Pawnship." Next week will witness the presentation of another fine program, beginning on Monday with the Fox production, "The Primitive Call," with Gladys Coburn.

COYLE—CHARLEROI

Photoplay dramas of titles and production that drew nightly crowded houses to the Coyle theatre were presented this week, beginning on Monday with the sterling film, "The Isle of Desire," with Virginia Pearson featured. One of the best pictures of the entire six day's period was that of Henry Walthal in "Little Shoes." This great play was one for which the ability of Henry Walthal well fitted him. On Wednesday Mabel Taliferro appeared in a production, "Wife by Proxy," a charming Metro story that pleased by its wonderful unfolding. Kathlyn Williams and Thomas Holding in "Redeeming Love," supported by a strong cast, made a hit on Thursday. Inez Hawley and William Nigh are being featured today (Friday) in "Life's Shadows." Coyle patrons are anticipating the great double bill Monday of Frances X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne in the first chapter of "The Great Secret" and Lou Tellegen in "The Victoria Cross."

PALACE—CHARLEROI

Different big acts featured the bill at the Palace this week, where there was amid week change of program. The forepart of the week an act direct from the Harris in Pittsburg was an attraction that served to draw large crowds. This was the act of the Tiller Sisters, in singing and dancing. Mine De Pinna appeared as an exponent of aerial dancing and the work won hearty applause. McCullough and Lamey with a comedy bill were out of the ordinary. De Juel and Co., masters of the black art magic were on the bill for the last part of the week. Appearing contemponaneously with them were The Stephannes, from Sunny Italy, with a musical act and the headliner attraction, McNeil and Farlarden in the comedy, "Dr. Rush's Speed Tablets." Manager Barnhart is arranging for a Fashion Show that he will introduce later to the public here. He has sent out notices to merchants of the forthcoming event.

NEW DAVIS—PITTSBURG

The appearance in vaudeville at the New Davis theatre every afternoon and evening during the week which begins next Monday, February 19 of Theodore Kosloff and Vlasta Maslova with their petite ballet russe, is an event of peculiar timeliness and popular interest. It affords opportunity for comparison with the larger organization of Serge de Diafhilieff, from which Kosloff, Maslova and their dozen dancers have graduated; and of deciding whether in America a half hour of Russian ballet mixed in with other brilliantly artistic performances in a refined vaudeville program is preferable to a whole evening of Slavic dancing. Kosloff was the premier danceur of the Imperial Ballet of Petrograd and Moscow and Maslova the premier danseuse of the same organization.

Among the other attractions which will comprise the nine-act bill along with the petite Ballet Russe, Mr. Davis promises: Dunbar's Old Time Darkies, a quartet that depicts the negro as he was in antebellum days and renders southern plantation melodies in the style and with the quaint humor peculiar in the American negro; Billie Burke's newest novelty, "Pinkie," an exceedingly clever and attractive young woman who sings and dances in a quite unusual manner; the Royal Gascoignes, a troupe of foreign jugglers "A Glance Ahead," a melodramatic farce by Williard Bowman, which will be presented by a cast of four gifted playaers.
